AD CLUB GETS FLAG TO MARK PATRIOTIC DAY

Chaplain Scott, 2nd Infantry,
Pays Eloquent Tribute to Colors

OLD GLORY.
By Mary Dillingham Frear.
(Read at today's Ad Club Luncheon)
Unfurled anew, O mighty flag, thy folds,
Old Glory!
Unrent, unstained,
O'er noble heights attained;
Wave on, till old and hoary,
Our far, far off descendants hail thee.
Honored more than life,
Emblem of lawful liberty,
Of freedom not born of strife,
But born of justice and love of men.
Oh, then, to earth's remotest ken,
Blot be thy story!
And be thou still—Old Glory!

Flag Day was celebrated at the Ad Club luncheon today at the Alexander Young hotel with a presentation of a beautiful silk American flag to the club, a patriotic address by Chaplain William R. Scott of the 2nd Infantry and a chorus of patriotic songs.

In his address on "The American Flag," Chaplain Scott brought out the point that flags and religion had always been associated, and that the flag stands for something in every nation since the beginning of time. He remarked that the American flag was older than that of England, France, Spain and Germany.

"If you want to bring peace to Hawaii do not vote for statehood," said Chaplain Scott. "Every war has occurred during a period when the flag had an odd number of stars. In the revolutionary period 13; in 1812, 15; in 1862, 26; in 1898, 48." President Farrington in presenting the flag to the club said: "The American flag is not the property of one organization. It is the property of every person in the nation and should be recognized as such. It is the emblem that we have in our hearts and in our work."

Tom Sharp declared that the flag is something that means much to every citizen of the nation. He gave a brief history of the American flag. He read a poem from the pen of Mrs. Mary Dillingham Frear, "Old Glory."

NO DECISION ON SPECIAL POLICE OFFICER STATUS

More than 100 special policemen in and around Honolulu will probably not be affected by the decision which Police Judge Monsarrat will hand down next Wednesday in the case of Nisuboo, charged with assaulting a police officer. Nisuboo was accused of assaulting Ben Jacobson, an assistant of Liquor Inspector W. P. Fennell, when the latter arrested Nisuboo on a charge of selling liquor without a license. Attorney Lorin Andrews, counsel for Nisuboo, based his entire defense on the allegation that Jacobson was not a policeman according to law.

A decision was to have been made by the judge this morning and he told the defense that from the evidence submitted he would find the defendant guilty, not on the charge submitted but on a lesser one of ordinary assault. This, the judge declared, the statutes allowed him to do. Under these circumstances the defense asked permission to reopen the case, next week to defend his client on the new charge, as he built his whole defense at the previous trial on the question of Jacobson's authority, the latter not having passed civil service examinations nor been placed on the eligibility list.

Much work is being accomplished at the Kaimuki Union church under the direction of Rev. C. H. McVey, the new pastor. He has invited the boys of the neighborhood to enter into sports, games, drills and educational classes, and says he will bring them to a point where "they would rather go to Sunday school than anywhere else."

Because an important witness for the prosecution was unable to attend court this morning, the case of Robert Dewar, accused of receiving stolen goods, was continued until tomorrow morning. The defense was promised that the trial would start promptly at 10 o'clock. A plea of not guilty was entered yesterday by Dewar. This is the Rapid Transit ticket case.

There will be a practice session of the old-time students of Punahou who have played apuhi, wicket, kumih, or any of the old games of the early period at Punahou. The practice will be on the lower field of Oahu College campus at 4 p. m. Thursday. It is hoped that several old Punahouites will be present for this preparation for "Punahou Day" celebration, June 22.

Scott, collector at San Francisco, has tendered his resignation with the intention of accepting a position with the California Insurance Federation. MAN WHO WOULD KILL HIMSELF IS POLICE PROBLEM

"I'll do a good job next time," the police report J. A. McIntosh as declaring. He has been in jail since he tried to shoot himself at the K. Ewen home on Beretania street, near Nonpareil lane, Monday noon. He is being held for investigation.

"We don't know just exactly what go to with the man," said Deputy Sheriff Asch today, "and we don't know whether he means by his threat that he will kill his wife or himself or both if we turn him loose. We believe he is desperate enough to warrant keeping him in custody for a while."

ACCURATE NIGHT FIRING DRIVES BACK INVADERS

Interesting War Problem is Worked Out By Troops
Near Schofield

Having entrenched itself on the eastern slope of the Waianae range, an invading army which had landed along the Waianae coast and fought its way over Kilauea pass was severely punished last night by shrapnel fire from defenders at Schofield Barracks, and finally driven back over the pass to seek refuge toward the sea.

The enemy was hypothetical, and so was the defending infantry, but the shrapnel which went hurtling out across the range was the real thing. Judging from the accurate way in which a three-inch battery located a certain area of the slope and sprayed it with shrapnel bullets for an hour or so the "enemy" could well be thankful that it was only imaginary.

Firing began at 8:30 o'clock, after a powerful searchlight, located many hundred feet from the battery, had sought out enemy's entrenchments. The only phase of the work which was unlike what would have occurred in actual warfare was the firing of a few rounds from each gun with "tracers" on each shell to show the trajectory or curve of the shell from the time it left the gun until it struck.

Several small forest fires were started by these tracers, but were extinguished by a detail of 40 men after the practice.

Many army and civil officials and townspeople motored out to see the practice, among these being 25 members of the 1st Company, Coast Artillery Corps, National Guard, who were met and taken to the battery by Lieut. R. E. De R. Hoyle, 1st Field Artillery, U. S. A. Lieut. Hoyle explained to the guardsmen the details of the problem which was being worked out by the gunners.

After the practice was finished the guardsmen were presented to Brigadier General Robert K. Evans, commanding the Hawaiian Department, and F. S. Strong, commander at Schofield Barracks.

ST. PETER TO BE DISCUSSED

"Is St. Peter the Rock?" This is the interesting question that will be answered by Evangelist McCord tonight at the "Peace Palace," near the Opera House, King street. This question will be thoroughly discussed by the evangelist, and further, the rights of the priest to absolve sin and to grant indulgences will be carefully examined from the word of God. All seeking for the way of truth and right are invited to attend the lecture for tonight at 7:30.

REPAIR OLD BARRACK ROOMS.

Barracks at Schofield, which were vacated by the 1st Infantry when its members moved into the new concrete buildings are being repaired and wired for electric lights in anticipation of the increased garrison which will result from the new army bill. At present officers' quarters are lacking for such an increase, and it is possible that officers may have to live in tents until suitable appropriation is available.

TO GUARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS

Through the paymaster-general of the navy, the navy department has had its attention called to the enormous quantities of flavoring extracts used by the sailors, and a rule has been adopted whereby these extracts henceforth will be kept with the ship's surgeon, not with the ship's cook. Flavoring extracts are said to have been a favorite drink with some of the old tars in days gone by.

GEN. BARRY AT CHICAGO.

Maj-gen. Thomas H. Barry, who passed through Honolulu a few weeks ago on his way from the Philippines to the mainland, has assumed command of the central department at Chicago.

BAR ARMY FROM MATCHES.

That no army officer, army team, or enlisted men shall compete in the national rifle matches at Jacksonville, Florida, this year is the gist of a bulletin from the war department, copies of which have just been received here. It is presumed that the need of men along the border is too great to allow their being taken away to attend the matches.

ARMY ORDERS

Leave of absence for two months, to take effect upon arrival at San Francisco, Cal., on or about June 20, 1916, is granted 2nd Lieut. Carl J. Ballinger, 25th Infantry.

The fifth stated convention of the department encampment, department of Hawaii, United Spanish War Veterans, will be held at Fort Shafter, H. T., in the hall of Col. F. W. Mansfield, Camp No. 2, on June 17 and 18, 1916.

"Watchful waiting is a policy which appears to be sticking pretty tight to me these days," declared Judge J. Wesley Thompson this morning. Thompson was appointed Hawaii circuit judge nearly a month ago and his commission thus far has failed to reach him at Honolulu.
